All Commanders-in-Chief, Flag Officers, Captains, and other Officers, are hereby earnestly entreated by the Committee, to use their best endeavours to increase the Subscriptions, and promote the welfare of the Society on all occasions that shall present themselves; and every Captain employed, is hereby particularly requested to deliver to the Senior Lieutenant of his Ship, one of these Books, for the inspection of his brother Officers, in order that no Officer may be ignorant of the merits and advantages to be derived from this Society.

To all Officers and others whom it may concern:

The incessant applications made to the President, Vice-Presidents, and Trustees of the Society, relative to cases of distress, compel them thus publicly to declare, that they will not, on any pretence, interfere to influence the individual Members of the Committee, relating thereto; but that, when such cases shall be laid before the Board, they will then act according to the best of their judgment, and with the strictest impartiality.

They further declare, that they will not answer any letters addressed to them on the above subject; as, by the rules and regulations of the Society, all applications concerning cases of Distress, and all inquiries relative to the nature of the Institution, are to be addressed to the Secretary (Mr. Hancock, No. 18, Adam Street, Adelphi,) and to him ONLY.

PATRON, THE KING.

At the Quarterly Meeting held at the Thatched House Tavern, St. James's Street, on Monday, the 12th of July, 1830, Vice-Admiral Sir Joseph Yorke, K. C. B. in the Chair.

The attention of the Committee having been specially directed to the great advantage which would be secured to the "Naval Charitable Society" if honoured with the Royal Patronage,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That His late Majesty having been the Patron of the "Naval Charitable Society," and it having been honoured with the distinguished support of His present Majesty, as a Member, venture to express their humble hope that HIS MAJESTY will be pleased to honour it with His further Royal support and that the Society be permitted to designate themselves "The Royal Naval Charitable Society."

That in the absence of Lord Gambier, the President, the foregoing Resolutions be conveyed to Admiral Sir Charles M. Pole, Bart., Senior Vice-President, with the request that he will lay it at His Majesty's feet on the part of this Society.

IT WAS FURTHER RESOLVED,

That the Chairman of the Committee do sign the same.

At the Meeting held on Monday, the 11th October, 1830, the Right Honourable Lord GAMBIER, G. C. B. in the Chair.

The Chairman having referred to the Resolution, which was unanimously voted at the last Quarterly Meeting, requesting Admiral Sir Charles M. Pole, Bart. to lay before His Majesty the humble hope of the Committee that he would be pleased to honour the Society with His Royal Patronage, stated he had satisfaction in communicating that His Majesty had graciously condescended to permit the Society to be designated "THE ROYAL NAVAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY."

The Chairman then read the following letter from Admiral Sir Charles M. Pole, Bart., conveying such, His Majesty's, most gracious Permission.

"Admiral Sir Charles Pole is honoured with His Majesty's commands to express His approval of the proposed appellation 'THE ROYAL NAVAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY,' of which His Majesty is graciously pleased to consider himself the Patron.

"To the Right Hon. the President and Vice-Presidents of 'The Royal Charitable Society.'"

IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED,

That His Majesty's gracious and condescending communication should be inserted in the Printed Reports of the Society.

AN APPEAL

TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND A BENEVOLENT PUBLIC.

Amidst the increasing numbers of benevolent institutions which are indebted for their support to the humane character of the age and nation in which we live, The Royal Naval Charitable Society ventures to renew its public appeal on the behalf of the indigent families of the Officers of the British Navy.

That those who, for their country's sake, cheerfully expose their lives and limbs to constant peril, are well entitled to the public protection, is a proposition, to the truth of which the heart of every Briton bears a cordial testimony; and it is equally true that the nation's care has, in several noble establishments, exerted itself in providing, in a general way, for the relief of this description of brave sufferers. But every day produces cases of particular distress and misery amongst that most deserving class of persons, the Sea Officers and their families, which cannot obtain a timely and effectual relief from the national purse, and whose habits and rank in society, while they greatly add to the poignancy of their distress, preclude them from many of those resources which are within the reach of persons of a lower condition.

The necessary expenses of a Naval Officer, and the unsettled habits which his very profession and employment have a tendency to produce, rarely admit of his providing for sudden contingencies and future want, while the hourly jeopardy to which his life is exposed, necessarily increases the probability that all his best efforts of economy may be intercepted by the stroke of death; to these causes it must in fairness be attributed, that Naval Officers, and their families, are more frequently than any other description of persons, thrown back upon the community without livelihood or resource.

To alleviate the sufferings of persons who, after having discharged the duties of an honourable service, find themselves reduced to misery and want; to rescue from poverty and woe the widows and orphans of our gallant defenders; to answer their urgent and daily increasing calls on their country's gratitude, this Society is induced to make this further appeal, in the earnest hope, that by an accession of New Subscribers its diminished income may be made more adequate to give that relief in many compassionate cases which it is not at present possible to extend to them, in consequence of the material falling off in its annual receipts.

The Society is prompted to make this appeal, in full confidence that as there is no object more worthy of public patronage on the principle of compassion, so there is none that better deserves it on grounds of policy: therefore, every man in England who feels an anxiety for his country's good, is called upon to promote this establishment according to his ability; but the Officers of the Navy are more immediately concerned in its success. Virtuous and brave seamen are all of one family—fellowship in danger, and sympathy in suffering, diffuse, or should diffuse among them, a fraternal feeling, which forbids a British sailor to see a brother in affliction, without making an effort to relieve him.

It remains only to say, as a further recommendation of the institution, that it pledges itself to take the greatest care to exclude the undeserving from all participation of its benefits; since to assist such persons, or their families, would be an abuse of the charity, and lessen the means of relieving meritorious sufferers: and in this view of the society, a collateral advantage of real importance may be expected to result from its exertions, as thereby encouragement will be held out to that good conduct and demeanour in the service, so essential to our naval grandeur.

As every institution of this kind derives some credit from its antiquity, it may be desirable to inform the public, that, as early as the year 1739, a similar society was set on foot, consisting of persons of distinguished rank and character in the Navy. This Society, after an interval of suspension, was revived in 1791, with its first title of The Amicable Navy Society, which was afterwards changed for that of The Naval Charitable Society, as being more truly expressive of its benevolent purposes, and His Majesty having been pleased to become its Patron, has graciously permitted it to be designated The Royal Naval Charitable Society.

At a Meeting of the Society, on the 9th of April, 1832, Admiral Sir George Martin in the Chair:

The Committee having this day voted £505 to Sixty-four Petitioners for relief, and taking into consideration the state of its income since the year 1825, and it appearing by the general statement of its receipts and disbursements in page xiv. of the printed Report of the Society that the amount of Donations and Subscriptions (in column 3) had been so gradually decreasing since that period as to show a deficit of £1000 in the receipts of the last year as compared with the amount realized in 1825, (and several years prior thereto,) the Committee regretted that such falling off in its receipts compelled the Society to reduce the scale of its donations, and to withhold relief in many compassionate cases. With an anxious desire, therefore, to aid its diminished funds:

IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED,

On the motion of Captain, the Right Honourable Lord Radstock, that the following Appeal on the behalf of the Society should be inserted in the Portsmouth and Plymouth Papers, and printed copies thereof transmitted to every Naval Officer in London.

The Committee have to lament the decease of many Flag Officers and distinguished persons by whose liberal contributions the Charity has been mainly supported, and in consequence of whose loss the receipts of the Institution have been greatly diminished. The Committee, therefore, earnestly call the attention of the members and friends of the Society to the necessity of procuring the support of additional subscriptions from a benevolent public, and from Naval Officers rising in the profession, without whose assistance the operations of this excellent charity must become still more limited in affording relief to the distressed relatives of Naval Officers.

At a General Meeting of the Society, April 18, 1795,

IT WAS RESOLVED,

That no Petition should be received which is not attested by a Subscriber, who is to certify, "That the Petitioner is a "proper object to be relieved by this Society, and that the "circumstances set forth in the Petition are to the best of his "knowledge correct."

That no Officer whatever shall be admitted a Member of the Society, (nor his Widow or Children be entitled to relief,) unless he shall have borne an honourable character in the service.

It is required, therefore, of those persons whose necessities induce them to apply to the Society for relief, to state in their Petition—"what are their means of support, their own ages, "occupations, and the number of their children, with their "respective ages, and the services of the parties or their rela-"tives;"—as no Petition will be attended to, unless it sets forth these particulars, and has the recommendation of a Subscriber, who is to certify the truth of the Petitioner's statement, according to the following form:—

To the Committee of the Royal Naval Charitable Society, instituted for the Relief of Indigent Orphans, Widows, and Children of Sea Officers, and also of Sea Officers reduced by Misfortune to Indigence.

THE humble Petition of Here insert the Petitioner's name, age, and residence.

SHEWETH,

That your Petitioner is the

Here insert the Petitioner's relationship to the Officer, with the rank he held in the service, also the time of his decease; and (if any) the number, and present ages of the children, and in what manner disposed of.

And that hath no salary, annuity, estate, pension, or provision whatsoever, except

If either, to be particularly stated.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays to be considered an object deserving of relief from the fund of the institution, and as in duty bound will ever pray.

(Signature of the Petitioner.)

This attestation to be signed by one or more members of the Society; no one else being entitled to that privilege.

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, being members of the Royal Naval Charitable Society, and being well acquainted with the Petitioner, and circumstances, or having such information concerning them, as we can fully rely upon, Do hereby certify, that the contents of the above Petition are true; and that the Petitioner is a person of good character and reputation, and a very fit object to be relieved by the Society.

The Committee meet quarterly; namely, on the second Monday in January, April, July, and October, to investigate applications for relief, which are to be addressed to the Secretary, Mr. Hancock, No. 18, Adam-street, Adelphi, (free of expense,) on or before the 25th of March, June, September, and December.

N.B. The Benefit of this Fund does not extend to the families of Assistant Surgeons, Boatswains, Gunners, or Carpenters; nor to Officers who are not Members of the Society.

At a General Meeting of this Society, on the 6th of February, 1804,

IT WAS RESOLVED,

That an Annual Scale of Subscription be established as follows, viz.—

	£	s.	d.
Admirals	3	3	0
Vice-Admirals	2	2	0
Rear-Admirals	1	1	0
Captains and Commanders	0	10	6
Lieutenants	0	5	0
Masters	0	5	0
Physicians	0	10	0
Surgeons	0	5	0
Pursers	0	5	0
Chaplains	0	5	0

Although a Scale of Subscription for the several ranks of Officers in the service is here inserted, to manifest the easy terms on which they may be admitted and entered upon the List as Members, yet this Scale does not prevent any Officer from subscribing any higher sum that he pleases.

It is requested of Officers, upon becoming Members of the Institution, to give authority to their respective Agents or Bankers, for the Annual Payment of their Subscription when called upon, which will save much trouble.

It is also further requested, that all Officers obtaining promotion do immediately instruct their Agent or Banker to raise their Subscription according to the foregoing Scale; and in case of their discontinuing to employ such Agent or Banker, that they will not fail to adopt some other mode of keeping up the regular Payment of their Annual Subscription to the Fund.

An erroneous opinion having prevailed respecting this Institution, it is thought proper to observe, that it is in no shape whatever connected with the Compassionate Fund, established at the Admiralty; or with the Meetings of the Navy Clubs, held at the Thatched House and other Taverns.

Donations and Subscriptions are received by the following Bankers, &c.

Messrs. CHILD and Co., Temple Bar;
——— DRUMMOND and Co., Charing Cross;
——— SMITH, PAYNE, and SMITH, Lombard Street;
——— GRANT, HICKLEY, and Co., Portsmouth;
——— HARRIS, ROSDEW, and Co., Plymouth;
——— Sir WILLIAM FORBES, Bart., and Co., Edinburgh;
Lieut. J. H. PRIEST, R.N., Plymouth Dock-Yard;
Lieut. E. MEDLEY, R.N., Sheerness;
Lieut. T. GRAY, R.N., Chatham;
THOMAS WILLEY, Esq., R.N., Secretary to the Royal Naval Annuitant Society, Coast Guard Office, Custom House, London.
And by Mr. HANCOCK, Secretary to the Society; of whom particulars may be known, by letter or otherwise, and to whom all applications to the Society must be addressed (free of expense) No. 18, Adam Street, Adelphi.

Should any person be disposed to bequeath a Legacy to this Charity, the following Form is recommended:—

I hereby give and bequeath unto the Trustees, for the time being, of the Royal Naval Charitable Society, for the use of the Society, and for the charitable purposes of that Institution, the sum of ——— of lawful money of Great Britain.

At a Meeting held at the Thatched-House Tavern, on Monday, the 13th of April, 1812,—Present,

PRESIDENT.

Admiral Lord RADSTOCK, in the Chair.

DEPUTY PRESIDENT.

Admiral Sir JOHN COLPOYS, K.B.

Capt. JAMES BLACK.
Lieut. JAMES SYMONS.
Lieut. THOMAS LYNNE.
Dr. ROBERTSON.
Rev. JOHN COOKE.
Mr. WILLIAM MILLER.

The merits and utility of this Society becoming daily more and more evident, and the noble and liberal support which it has within the last few years received from a generous and benevolent public, having enabled its conductors to extend its benefits and utility far beyond the expectation of its warmest and most sanguine friends, and consequently requiring its establishment to be on a greater and more dignified scale,—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the following persons be the President, Deputy-President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurers, and Secretary to this Society:

President,

Right. Hon. Admiral Lord RADSTOCK.

Deputy-President,

Admiral Sir JOHN COLPOYS, K.B.

Vice-Presidents:

Adm. Sir JOHN ORDE, Bart.

Vice-Adm. W. A. OTWAY.
Vice-Adm. Sir SAMUEL HOOD, Bart.

Treasurers:

Adm. Sir JOHN COLPOYS, K.B.
Adm. Sir J. T. DUCKWORTH, Bart. and K.B.
Capt. WM. BROWELL, Lieut.-Gov. Greenwich Hospital.

Secretary,

Mr. C. W. AUBREY, Navy Office.

RESOLUTIONS RELATING TO NON-SUBSCRIBERS.

At a Meeting of the Society, on the 7th Jan. 1811, Right Hon. Admiral Lord Radstock in the Chair;

RESOLVED,

(No. 1.) That as the Annual Subscriptions and Donations have been found inadequate to the relief of the several petitions presented to the Committee, a preference shall be given to such Widows and Orphans whose Husbands or Fathers were Subscribers to the Society.

Note.—It is to be hoped that the above Resolution will be duly attended to by Non-Subscribers, whose Widows or Orphans might hereafter have occasion to solicit the aid of this Charity.

At a Meeting held on the 5th of April, 1813, the Committee took into consideration the great increase of Petitions; and although it could not fail to be highly gratifying to every feeling heart to know that such a noble charity exists, it was greatly to be feared that the desired liberal relief to deserving objects could not be continued without further assistance from the public; and notwithstanding there has of late years been a material increase of Naval Subscribers to this Society, yet, as it bears no proportion to the number of Officers upon the list, or to the increasing demands of the numerous claimants:

IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED,

(No. 2.) That from and after the commencement of the year 1815, all Petitions from the Widows or Relatives of deceased Officers, Non-Subscribers, be deemed inadmissible.

Although there is little probability of the Widows or Relatives of Flag Officers seeking relief from this Charity; yet, as an example to Officers of inferior rank,

RESOLVED,

That the Secretary be directed to forward to all Flag Officers, Non-Subscribers, a copy of the general statement of the Naval Charitable Society; trusting that, on due consideration of its contents, they will be induced to become members of this Society.

At a Meeting held on the 2d of January, 1815, the Resolution that was passed on the 5th of April, 1813, (see No. 2,) was taken into consideration by the Committee, as its operation was to commence with the present year; and it appearing that a considerable increase of Subscribers had been obtained to the Society, since the passing the said Resolution, and most of the Officers having expressed their ignorance of its existence,

IT WAS FURTHER RESOLVED,

(No. 3.) That the period of excluding the Widows or Relatives of deceased Officers, Non-Subscribers, shall be extended to January, 1816.

At a Meeting held on Monday, the 8th Jan. 1816, the Secretary having reported to the Committee, that the period allowed by the Society's Resolution of the 5th of April, 1813, (No. 2.) had ceased with the commencement of the present year, several members of the Society expressed their desire that further time should be afforded to Officers abroad, for sending their names as Subscribers to this Society, in order that their families might not suffer by such omission,

IT WAS THEREFORE RESOLVED,

(No. 4.) That the period for admitting the Petitions of the Widows or Relatives of deceased Officers, Non-Subscribers, should be further extended to the 31st of December, 1816; after which time all applications from such Petitioners would be finally rejected.

At a Meeting held on the 6th of January, 1817, in reference to the foregoing Resolutions, (Nos. 2, 3, and 4,)

IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED,

(No 5.) That all Officers who have died subsequent to the 31st of December, 1816, and not having been Subscribers, their Widows and Relatives cannot be relieved from this Society.

RESOLUTIONS, GENERAL AND SPECIAL.

At a Meeting of the Society on the 7th of January, 1811,—

RESOLVED,

(No. 1.) That the Secretary be directed to transmit copies of the General State of the Naval Charitable Society to such Noblemen, Ladies, and Gentlemen, who have already subscribed, and also to those individuals who are considered likely, from their known liberality, to give their willing support to this Charity, either by Subscription or Donation.

At a Meeting of the Society on the 13th of April, 1812,—

RESOLVED,

(No. 2.) That the Secretary be directed to write to all the Commanders-in-Chief, requesting them to recommend to their Secretaries to exert themselves to promote the interests of this Society.

RESOLVED,

(No. 3.) That the Secretary be directed to furnish his Majesty's Naval Commissioners at the Out-Ports, and also those on Foreign Stations, with a sufficient supply of the Books containing the general state of the Society; at the same time requesting them to endeavour to increase the list of its Subscribers.

RESOLVED,

(No. 4.) That the proceedings of this day, (see pages v. vi. xviii. and xx.) together with the general state of the Society, be forwarded to every Flag-Officer who is not already a Subscriber to the Society.

RESOLVED,

(No. 5.) That Donations of a less sum than Five Pounds, from persons not belonging to the Navy, cannot be suffered to remain permanently upon the list, unless accompanied by an Annual Subscription of One Guinea.

At a Meeting of the Society, on the 11th of April, 1825,—

RESOLVED,

(No. 6.) That from and after this day, no sum in the shape of gratuity or reward be voted to any Officer, or other person connected with the Naval Charitable Society, without previous notice given to that effect.

At a Meeting of the Society, on the 9th of January, 1826 —It having been represented to the Committee that some inconvenience had arisen from the Quarterly Meetings taking place on the first Monday in January and April,

RESOLVED,

(No. 7.) That for the future the Quarterly Meeting shall be notified for the second Monday in January, April, July, and October, at the Thatched House Tavern, St. James's Street, at 12 o'clock precisely,* for the purpose of investigating Petitions, granting relief to those who may be considered deserving thereof, and for managing the affairs of the Society.†

* Unless otherwise expressed in the Notice by the Secretary.

† At which Meetings every Subscriber present is a Member of the Committee.
